

Joliet Arsenal Guards Placed On Probation

CHICAGO (AP) — 'Two civilian guards at the Joliet arsenal were placed on probation for two years Thursday by Federal Judge William J. Campbell for theft of government property.

The guards, Thomas W. Travis, 35, of Braiwdood, and Bobbie Frank Webb, 25, of Wilmington, had pleaded guilty July 30 to charges of stealing paint and brushes from the arsenal.

Charles A. Kralovec, assistant U. S. attorney, said the stolen goods were worth about $150.

The guards were represent by State's Attorney John Irving Pearce of Will County.
